

Where To Eat & Stay In San Diego

THE HOTELS

Mission Pacific Hotel

The Mission Pacific Hotel in Oceanside is a cool place to stay if you want to be steps away from beaches and the pier, and don't really care about being in Downtown San Diego. It's got a rooftop pool, bar, and lounge area with ocean views that hosts DJs on weekends, a notable Baja California-inspired restaurant, Valle, and typical San Diego amenities like a surf valet. It's also where you'll find the "Top Gun house," which was relocated and revamped into a pie shop.
